

GENERAL CONDITIONS
RELATING TO PRIZE OFFERS TO AFFILIATED AGRICULTURAL SHOW
SOCIETIES, 2012

The British Pig Association offers prizes to Agricultural Show Societies subject to their accepting the following Conditions:

1. Separate classes to be provided for each breed to which the prizes relate.
2. Classes to be open to all BPA members.
3. BPA rosettes will be awarded only to members of the British Pig Association.
4. Judges to be selected from any British Pig Association official lists regardless of breed.
5. The identities of pigs forward should be checked against catalogue or entry form
6. Identifying information for each exhibit to appear on entry forms or in catalogues

(Primary ID = HDL/Ear No.) - in brackets; registered name; Herd Book number; date born together with the name of the breeder, if different from that of the exhibitor.

Please note that all the above information can be found in the BPA on-line herdbook in the pedigree pigs section of our website at www.britishpigs.org Exhibitors should supply the registration number of each pig on their entry form. This number can then be used to display all the information required for the catalogue. Show societies are requested to use this facility to verify that the information supplied on the entry form is correct before printing the catalogue.

7. The BPA Special Conditions published to Societies, defining breeding requirement etc. for certain ages of pig, to appear in Show Schedules. Only those Special Conditions concerning breeds for which relevant classes are provided need be printed.

NOTE: If any Special Condition is already incorporated in a Society's own Regulations, repetition is unnecessary

8. The catalogue to include in the pig section a statement that classes are held under BPA Special Conditions as printed in the Show Schedule
9. A catalogue or list of results detailing all awards and Championship winners in the appropriate class(es) of the pig section or a full print out of all pig results to be sent to the BPA within fourteen days after the Show
