

GENERAL CONDITIONS
RELATING TO PRIZE OFFERS TO AGRICULTURAL SHOW SOCIETIES, 2022

The British Pig Association offers prizes to Agricultural Show Societies subject to their accepting the following Conditions:

1. Separate classes (at least three) to be provided for each breed to which the prizes relate.
2. Classes to be open to all BPA members.
3. BPA rosettes will be awarded only to members of the British Pig Association.
4. Judges to be selected from British Pig Association official lists and may be accompanied by a BPA appointed novice apprentice judge.
  - a) BPA registered pigs must be identified by ear notch or ear tattoo
  - b) The identities of pigs forward should be checked against catalogue entries or entry forms and the Show Society should co-operate with BPA appointed representatives to ensure that the correct pigs are forward and that they are correctly identified.
6. Identifying information for each exhibit be recorded from the entry form

Unique Ear Number, Herd Book number (e.g R000123BK), date of birth, registered name, together with the name of the breeder, if different from that of the exhibitor.

This information should be sent to the BPA office with details of the classes entered for each pig as soon as possible after the closing date for eligibility checking and proof reading.

7. The BPA Special Conditions published to Societies, defining breeding requirement etc. for certain ages of pig, to appear in Show Schedules. Only those Special Conditions concerning breeds for which relevant classes are provided need be printed.

NOTE: If any Special Condition is already incorporated in a Society's own Regulations, repetition is unnecessary

8. The catalogue to include in the pig section a statement that classes are held under BPA Special Conditions as printed in the Show Schedule
9. A catalogue detailing all awards and Championship winners in the appropriate class(es) of the pig section or a full print out of all pig results to be sent to the BPA within fourteen days after the Show. If results are published on the society website please ensure these include the herdbook registration number
